Re: United States v. Joseph Yannai, CR 10-594 (ERK)

Your Honor:

I write, briefly, at the Court's direction, to respond to Mr. Yannai's letter to the Court dated October 26, 2011.

As Mr. Yannai notes in his letter, I have discussed with him the preparation and filing of a motion for a new trial pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P.33. The Court has extended the time for the filing of this motion until the date of sentence (no sentence date has been scheduled as the presentence investigation report has not been completed.) I intend to file the motion in a timely fashion, once I have completed my review of the facts and law underlying the request. While I appreciate Mr. Yannai's concern that every day I don't file the motion is an extra day he must spend in durance vile, I have told him and am now informing the Court that I will file the motion for a new trial when I can present the best legal and factual support for it.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael K. Schneider, Esq.
